Guests:

We are a very small festival and we are now at capacity. I'm afraid we cannot accommodate any guests unless prearranged as part of your fee.

Directions (follow the little fire symbols from Aberystwyth):

1. Take the B4340 out of Aberystwyth
2. When you get to Abermagwr, take the only left in town, signposted Cnwch Coch.
3. Proceed 1 mile and you'll get to the gates.

THE MOUNTAIN ROAD

Part of the inspiration for the festival and indeed its name, comes from the amazing Mountain Road route to the site from Rhayader. If you are driving during the day, and fancy an adventure, when you get to Rhayader, instead of following the A470 to Aberystwyth, take the B4518, then follow signs for the Mountain Road/Elan Valley. This will take you over the most breath taking mountains. BE CAREFUL! It's mostly single track. When on the mountain road, follow signs to Cwmystwyth, then Devil's Bridge, then Aberystwyth.

Train:

Aberystwyth, then cabs are around £20 to site. We run shuttles to site that meet nearly every train coming in to Aberystwyth.
